Nauset Tides 2003

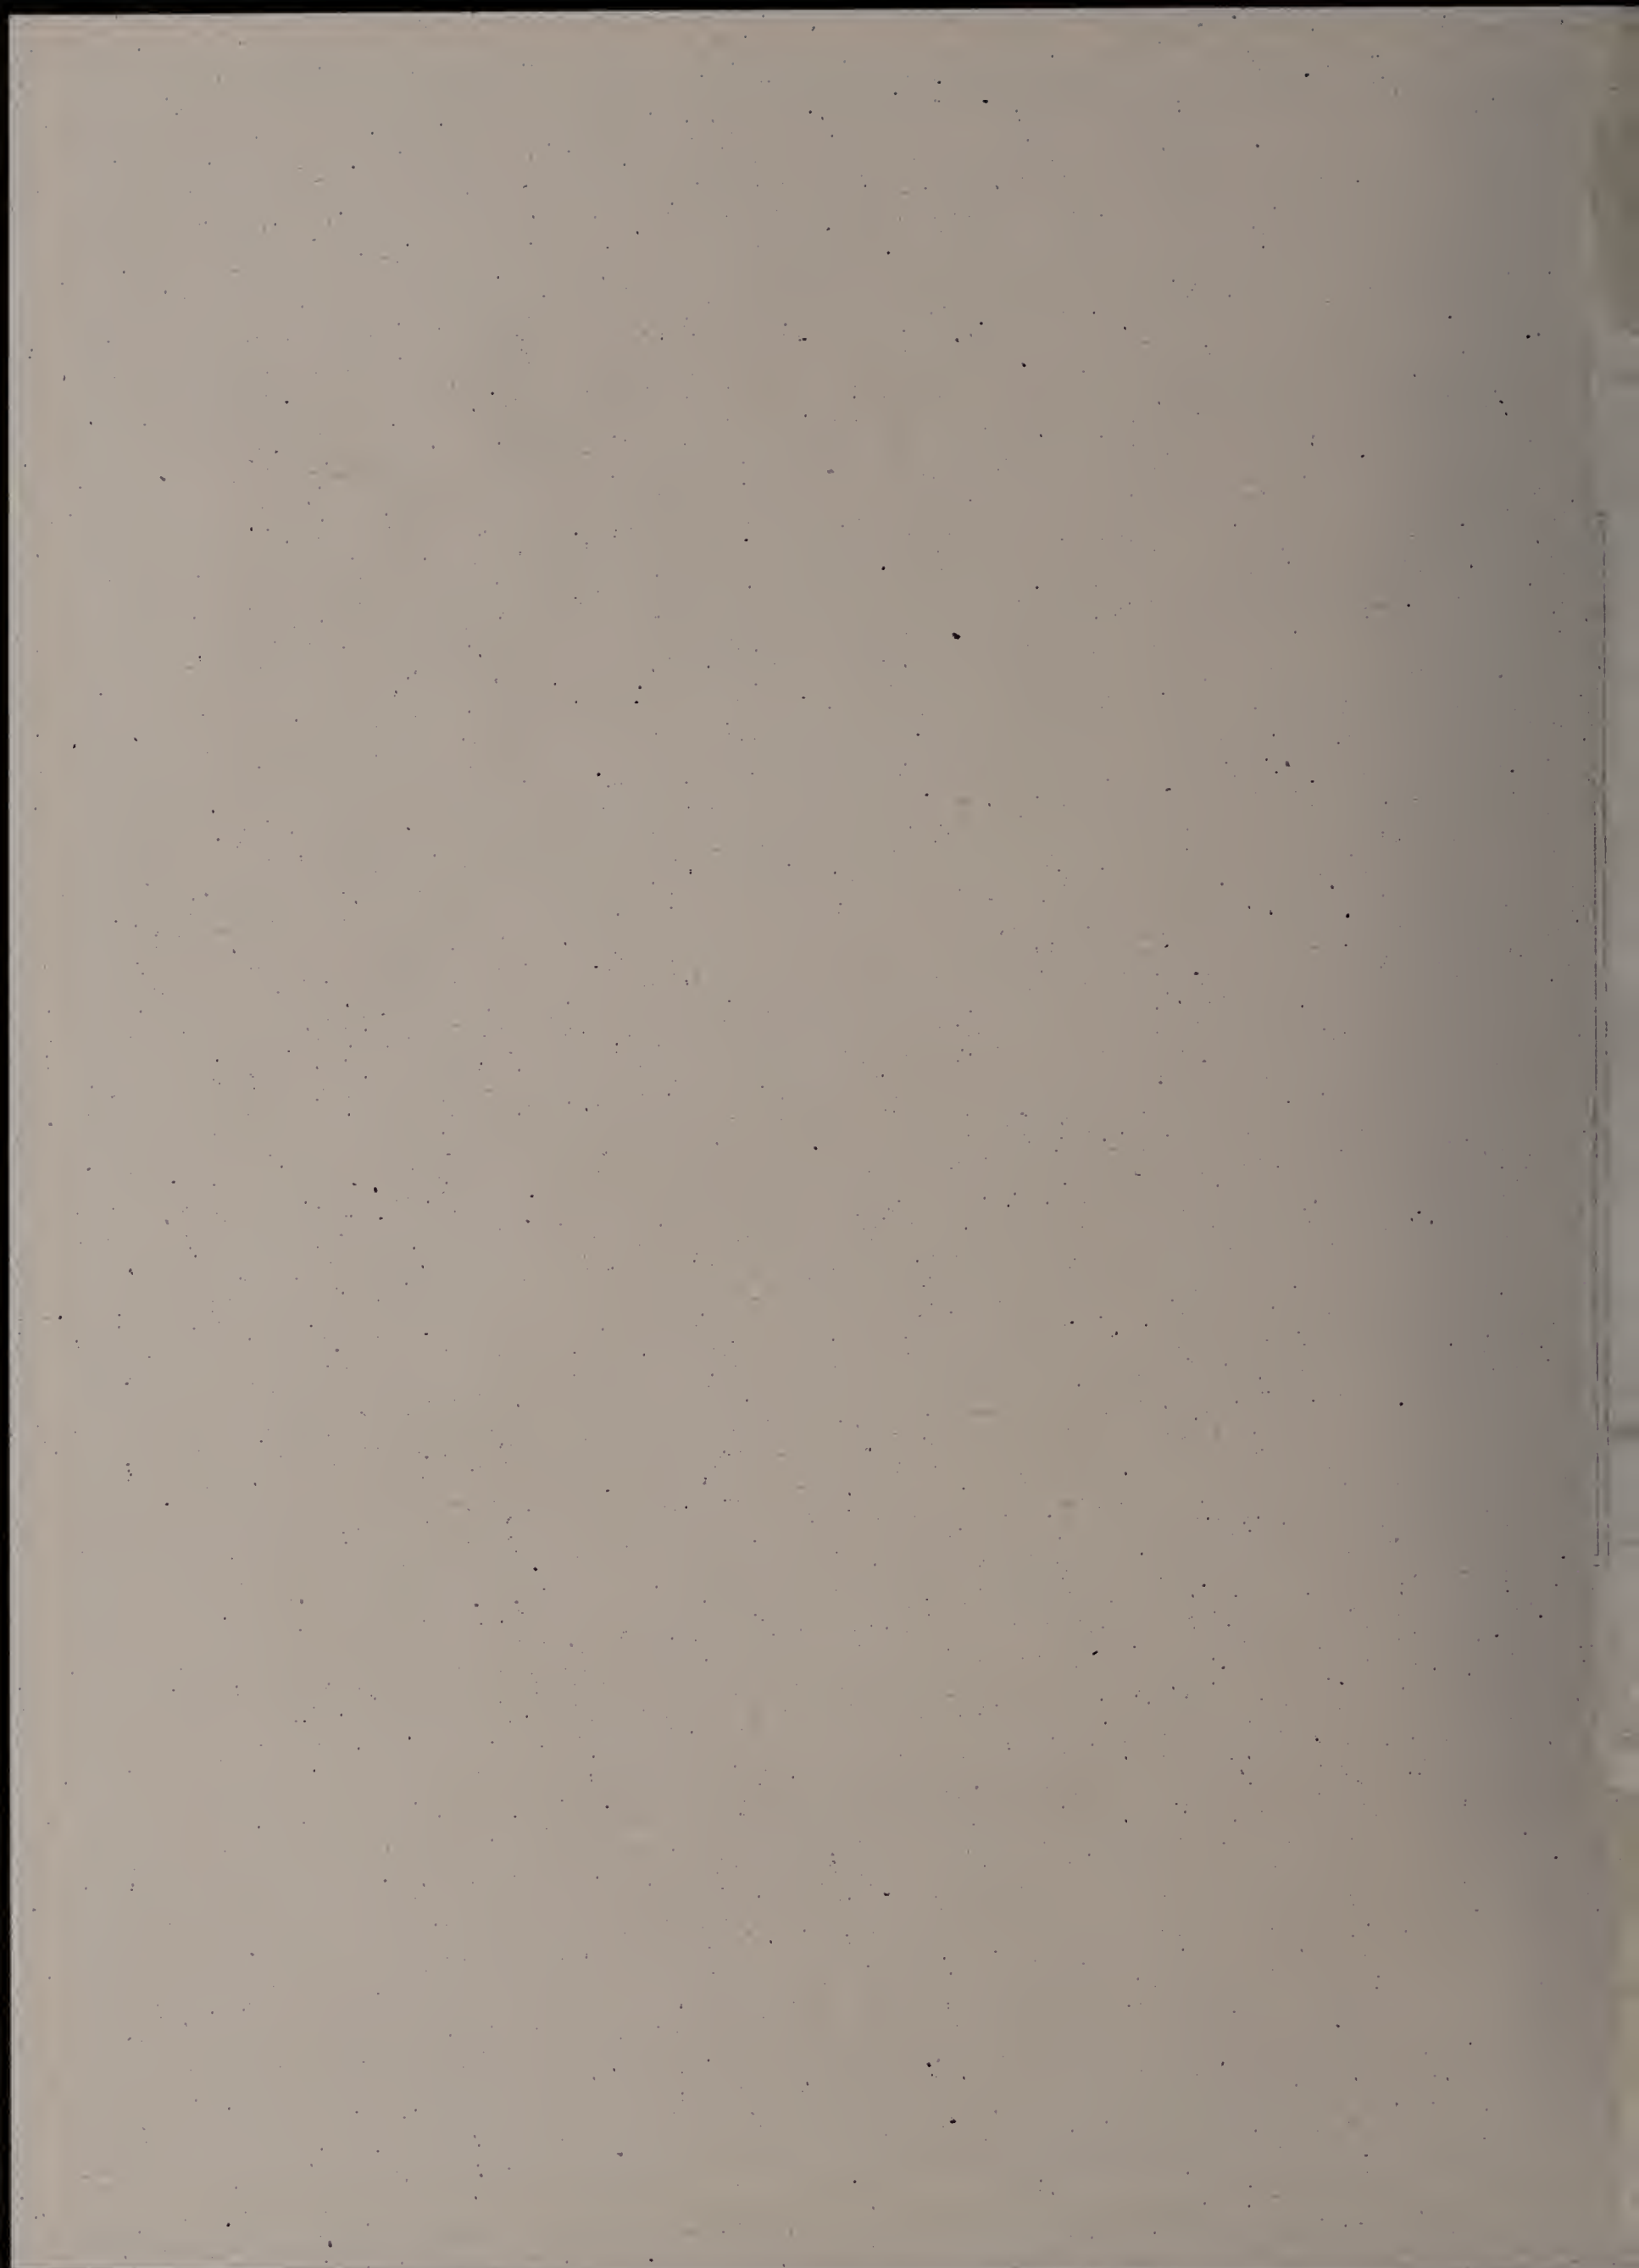

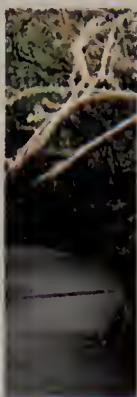

Nauset Regional High School

YEARBOOK 2003
Nauset Tides.

30809000220299

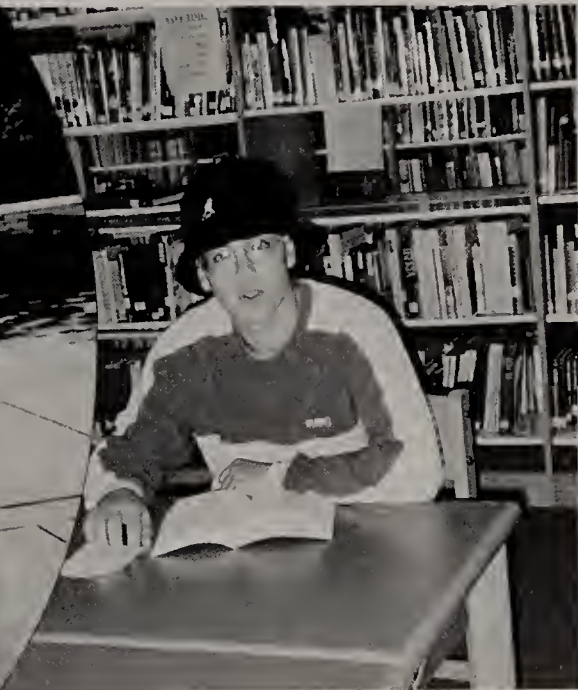

The bright sun awakens us while it rises over the crashing waves of the ocean. It illuminates the sky, casting it's light over the trees. As it sets in the evening, it gives us one last gift, by painting the canvas of the Cape Cod sky with magnificent brilliance.

As you head off in your own direction, keep in mind one last thing: No matter which corner of the earth this life takes you, Cape Cod's unique beauty will always leave a lasting impression.

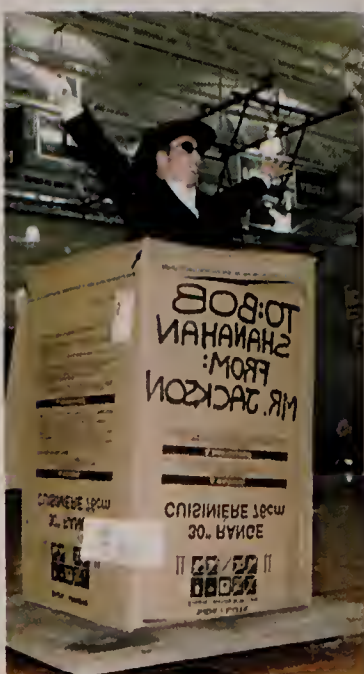

Spirit Spirit Spirit Spirit Spirit

Crazy Hats, Backwards Day, American Spirit, and an explosion of Black and Gold radiated through the campus all week long.

On Friday afternoon the gym was packed with Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. Loud cheers were heard from the stands as students showed their spirit and support. Although all of the classes did a tremendous job, in the end seniors triumphed.

2002 Pep Rally Judges were Ms. Martin, Ms. Greenway, Ms. Mackenzie & Mr. Langlois

We Are The Class Of 2003

I feel startlingly unprepared
 As I set out to put down a lasting mark,
 A recording of the history of our class.
 I feel about this
 As we all do,
 Approaching the colossal moment,
 When we have to actually answer the question,
 What now?
 We won pep rally freshman, sophomore, and senior year,
 We marched outside to the football field,
 After our final pep rally,
 And we collected on the new bleachers,
 A symbol of hard work and achievement.
 As I walked to the bleachers,
 Just a little late,
 I looked at the class assembled before me,
 And I knew everyone's name,
 I could remember something about everyone,
 Even if it was trivial,
 I remember great victories and defeats,
 Lessons learned and eternal friendships made.
 Our future lies ahead of us.
 We are athletes, writers, scientists, doctors,
 Teachers, world travelers.
 We will go our separate ways,
 Live our lives on grand and small scales,
 And we may pass each other on the street someday,
 We will smile and remember,
 Think of the good times,
 The bad times,
 Elation and embarrassment, victory and understanding.
 Years from now,
 We will all remember,
 And proudly proclaim,
 That we are the class of 2003,
 And we have our glorious claim to fame.

"It doesn't matter if you win or lose, it's how you played the game."

We did it! Thank you to everyone who has stuck by me for the past four years. Amanda, Beki, Sam, Leah, Grace, Kara, and Jillian-I am going to miss all of you. Amanda, I am never going to forget you and the way you always match. Leah, I love you! There are no words to explain how much I love you Dave. You opened my eyes to a whole new world. Mom and Dad, I wouldn't have been able to do it without you. Congratulations to the class of 2003.

I bequeath my heart to Dave, and getting stuck and all the blue lollipops in the world to Leah.

Nathan Allard

"Hold my sign I won't want to lose it."

-Bill Engvall

Ryan, Josh, Chris, Pete, it's finally over, it was fun, I don't think there was a parking lot we didn't hang out in. Pete, Chris its just cause we're Allards, nothing we can do about it. Ryan, Josh its been a blast, we had some good times. Chevy's rule, nobody forget it. Mom, Dad I love you. Lindsey. Good Luck to everyone.

Peter Allard

"It's not that I don't like you, it's just that when I'm not behind the mic I'm a person who is just like you."-Eminem

First of all to my friends, it has been fun. Josh share the chrome and I will get my truck. Chris keep trying, think before you do, I won't be there next year to think for you. Nathan I will always be there for you when you need a sign holder. Ryan doors hurt; hanging out in parking lots is what our summers are about. Dad and Jenn I owe you the world, I love you!

Alexander Allrich

"We're gonna rock it tonight!" -West Wide Story

I have had the best four years of my life at Nauset. Some interesting memories of Nauset are; Godspell, SWS trips, and of course talking between classes out in the courtyard. Throughout these years at Nauset, I have learned many new things academically and also about life. Ok...that's enough sappy stuff...I would have shoutouts, but I know that I probably wouldn't remember them anyways.

"All that we see or seem is but a dream within a dream."

- Edgar Allen Poe

Looking back, it is hard to imagine that once I thought I would not live to see this day. There was a time when delusions & false realities overcame my natural perception. Thanks to the love of my family, medical assistance, and mental guidance, I have overcome. To Mr. Joyce, thanks for being there for me on that cold November day. To Mike, I consider you my brother & always my greatest friend. To Dr. Presnall, you are a godsend. To the teachers in my life, thank you all. To music, you reflect life & are the essence of my soul. To all, never give up, there is too much to miss. Nora, keep your head up, you can do anything. In closing, bless the future.

So this is the end, I suppose it had to end sometime. I wish I could thank everyone who has ever helped me, ever spoken a kind word, or pushed me to do better, but these individuals are far too numerous to list here. However I must say; Rebecca you are my only, you have meant so much to me over the past 2 years and I must let you know how thankful I am. To my parents, you must know how appreciative I am for your support and guidance through these years. I should also thank my friends for being just that, my friends. I wish everyone luck in all they pursue, and hope you achieve your goals.

Hey what can I say, it's finally over. We made it through the good times, the bad times, and the all around sad times. We made it. I am so proud of the people who stuck through and made it to graduation. Thank you to my family, I couldn't have gotten this far without you. To Melissa, you're the best. To Crickel, love you (twin). To Crystal, you've been the bestest friend in the world, thanx. It is better to be bad than bored. To my girl Kris and all the others, thank you for making life such a blast. I have to say thank you to drama, you made me strong, without you I wouldn't be me. Hamer, thank you. And thank you to everyone else who helped me.

A Preview of your 10 year reunion...

Jamie Zile says... "I will have been going to school full time, and just graduating from a medical school in Hawaii..."

Logan Thompson said...
"You'll see me on TV for the NBC news."

Chris Dupont is thinking the same as Ryan Calkins,
"If I'm not in the army, I'll be in the Coast Guard..."

Brady Andres says... "Out of college in a well paying job doing something I like..."

Amanda Rozema answers...

"I'll be teaching 1st grade somewhere off Cape..."

As always, you could expect an answer like this from Jen Reis... "If I'm not on the moon, I'll Be teaching somewhere off Cape Cod..."

Sam Fiske's looking forward to being... "A detective for the NYPD..."

"Where will you be in 10 years?"

Tiffany Mendoza's planning to "...own her own hair salon, one on Cape Cod, and one in Florida..."

Brendan Kemp aspires to be "...Engineering somewhere working with a small development team in Hawaii..."

Jamie Welch says with confidence..." I'll be VERY SINGLE, and recruiting young blood for the NCWA college teams..."

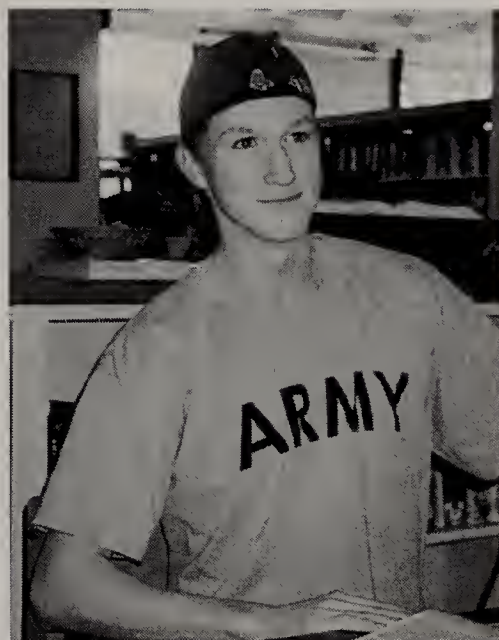

Hayley Nickerson says... "Working for an accounting firm in my own little cubicle..."

Megan Casey wants to be opening up a "frozen" fruit stand off of the Interstate, while owning a frightening amount of cats..."

Alex Allrich proudly answers... "An Army Officer in the Special Forces..."

Sarah Stewart expects... "To be living in a mansion on the beach with her "hubby", kids, and pet monkey, and have Hayley working as her accountant in her own little cubicle in the basement..."

A Different Angle

Senior SWS

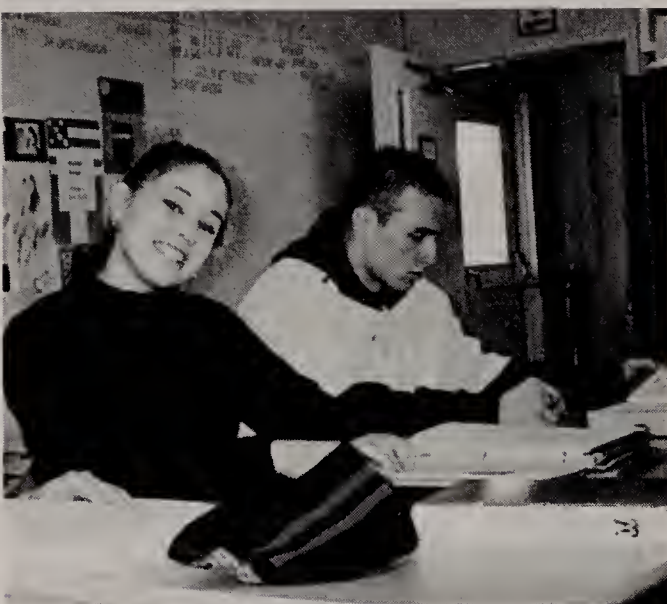

The Renaissance School Within A School (SWS) emphasizes humanistic, student-centered learning in a creative, supportive atmosphere.

"SWS brings out your creative side while working your brain. It brings together history and truth unlike any other class. Be prepared to work hard in a calming enviroment that will make you not want to leave." - Kaitlyn Hesse

" SWS is cooperative not competitive. It is about open mindedness and creativity. Over the last 2 years our group has experienced something that other students never could, a sense of solidarity"
- Matt Dineen

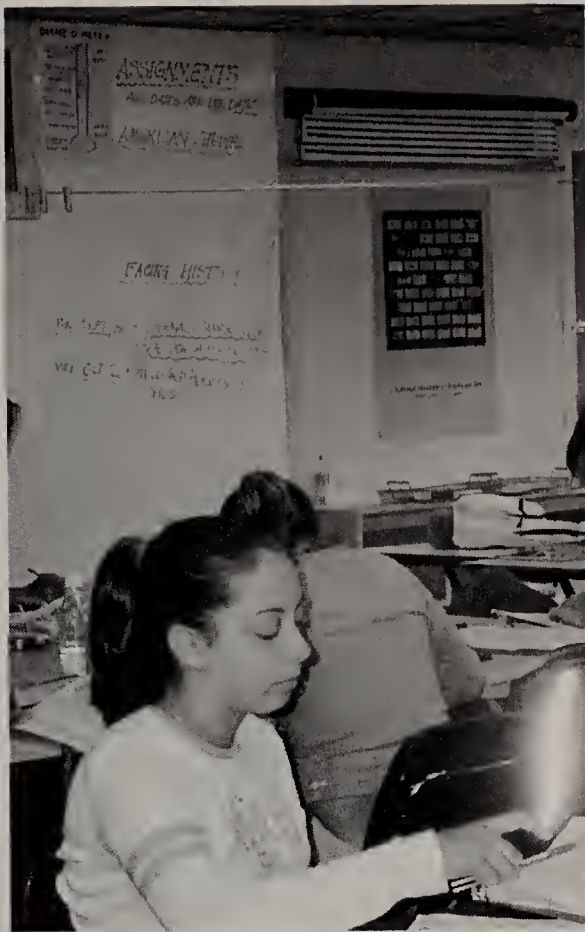

"...I have a child who is eager to go to school, is working hard to excel, and loves his classes...We sincerely believe it was this program that encouraged our two oldest children to be the capable, successful, happy adults they are now... It is about reaching out and engaging the child who may be less conventional...giving them means to "fly."

"Our dedication and love for the sport is what made this season the best. We finished 3rd in the ACL!" A. Rozema

"We have a lot of fun at practice but when it comes down to it we know how to work hard. After losing a girl to injury 3 days before competition we still placed 3rd. This is the 1st time we've placed in many years. Unlike other seasons, we didn't leave in tears; we left feeling successful. Each member's dedication was amazing and that's how we came so far in such a short time." M. Rogers

"...If You Can Walk, You Can DANCE..."

This Year Nauset's Fine Arts Department added "Dance" to its extensive list of courses. A collaboration between Mrs. Beavan and the Academy of Performing Arts' Suzette Hutchinson has proven successful for a great first year. Here's to a bright future for dance at Nauset!

Cultural Diversity Mural created by Lisa Brown's students titled "Exploring and Respecting Differences".

This season the Nauset Players put on William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, Lullabies of Broadway, and the spring musical Fame

For the past two years the Nauset Players have put on a benefit concert to raise money for various charities. This year the concert was held in honor of Carol Potoff. The proceeds were donated to the Massachusetts Breast Cancer Coalition.

The seniors of the Nauset players would like to thank Ms. Hamer for all her hard work, love, craziness, and of course for helping us put on a fantastic show everytime!!!

Mike,

Congratulations! All your hard work has paid off! You are such a wonderful gift from God, and we are so thankful for every day we have with you.

As you have grown, we have watched you become this smart funny, wonderful young man, full of life and love. We couldn't be prouder of you.

We know you will do well in life, because you have integrity, modesty, faith, and honesty. We will always be here for you, but we are confident that you will be successful in all you do. So reach for the stars Mike, they can be yours!

God Bless you now and throughout your life.

Nicole,

I am so proud of you! You are bright, imaginative, and determined. You warm the hearts of everyone you meet with your kind smile and gentle ways. You are true and loyal to your friends and are always there for them. Hold onto that clever sense of humor. It will carry you far. Keep laughing and smiling and loving life. Remember Miss Otis and Butterfly Kisses.

Love Mom xoxo

Nick,

Thanks for a lot of things you've done for me, we always had our funny moments.

Good Luck in college

Your children are not your children. They are the sons and daughters of life's longing for itself. They come through you but not from you, and though they are with you, yet they belong not to you. You may give them your love but not your thoughts. For they have their own thoughts.

You may house their bodies but not their souls, for their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.

You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor carries with yesterday.

You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth. The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far. Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness; For even as he loves the arrow that flies, so he loves also the bow that is stable.

Casey,

You too drew a tough spot in the family: the baby. And while endings are generally sad, you are such a joy! You accepted the chores, doing your own laundry and being there for us. You are the one we hold on to so tightly. with awe and pride we have watched you mature into the young woman that you are. It truly makes us proud to say that we are your parents. When your hair turns grey and your own children tower over you, you'll still be our baby...our little rosebud. So spread your wings, discover what the world has waiting you and know that no matter where you go, we love you...more....hold on!most.....hold on!.... more than most!!!!!!!!! Mom and Dad

Nothing is so strong as a contented spirit and pure heart. And your confidence in yourself will allow you to great undertakings. Hold yourself responsible for a higher standard than anybody else expects of you and you will have a great future.

different drummer you're on your way!
You've always made us so proud.
Congratulations! We love you with all our heart and soul.

Mom, Ryan, Dad

Dear Liana,

It's hard to believe that we are here already at your graduation day. For us it seems like only an instant has passed since you were the adventurous little girl who talked to flowers. We are so proud of the poised, confident young woman you've become. In all you do, whether playing with a puppy, laughing with friends and family, dancing, or making something creative, your spirit and joy for life shines on all of us, and we are better for it. Thank you for who you are. We love you more than words can say.

Dad and Mom

Dear Tweety,

We love the way you get up early to face the day. We love the way you always lend a helping hand. We love the way you never give up. We love the way you never let the bad times get you down. We love the way you always think of others first. We love the way you leave us artistic surprises. We love the way you never give into the pain. We love the way you set goals. We love the way you dig in your heels when you know you're right. We love the way you are. You are perfect. Don't change a thing.

Mom, Dad, Ben, Dusty.

"I will behave in a manner so as to become a light, not a roadblock, for others."

We dedicate our 2003 yearbook to Allan and Lynn Sullivan for their total devotion to Nauset Regional High School. Since coming to our school community, Allan and Lynn have made contributions that have resulted in our school becoming a better place; each, in their own way, impacting our campus in a positive way. Their own four children, Seth, Ryan, Kevin and Sean have also benefited from the enthusiasm and devotion their parents have shown throughout their years at Nauset.

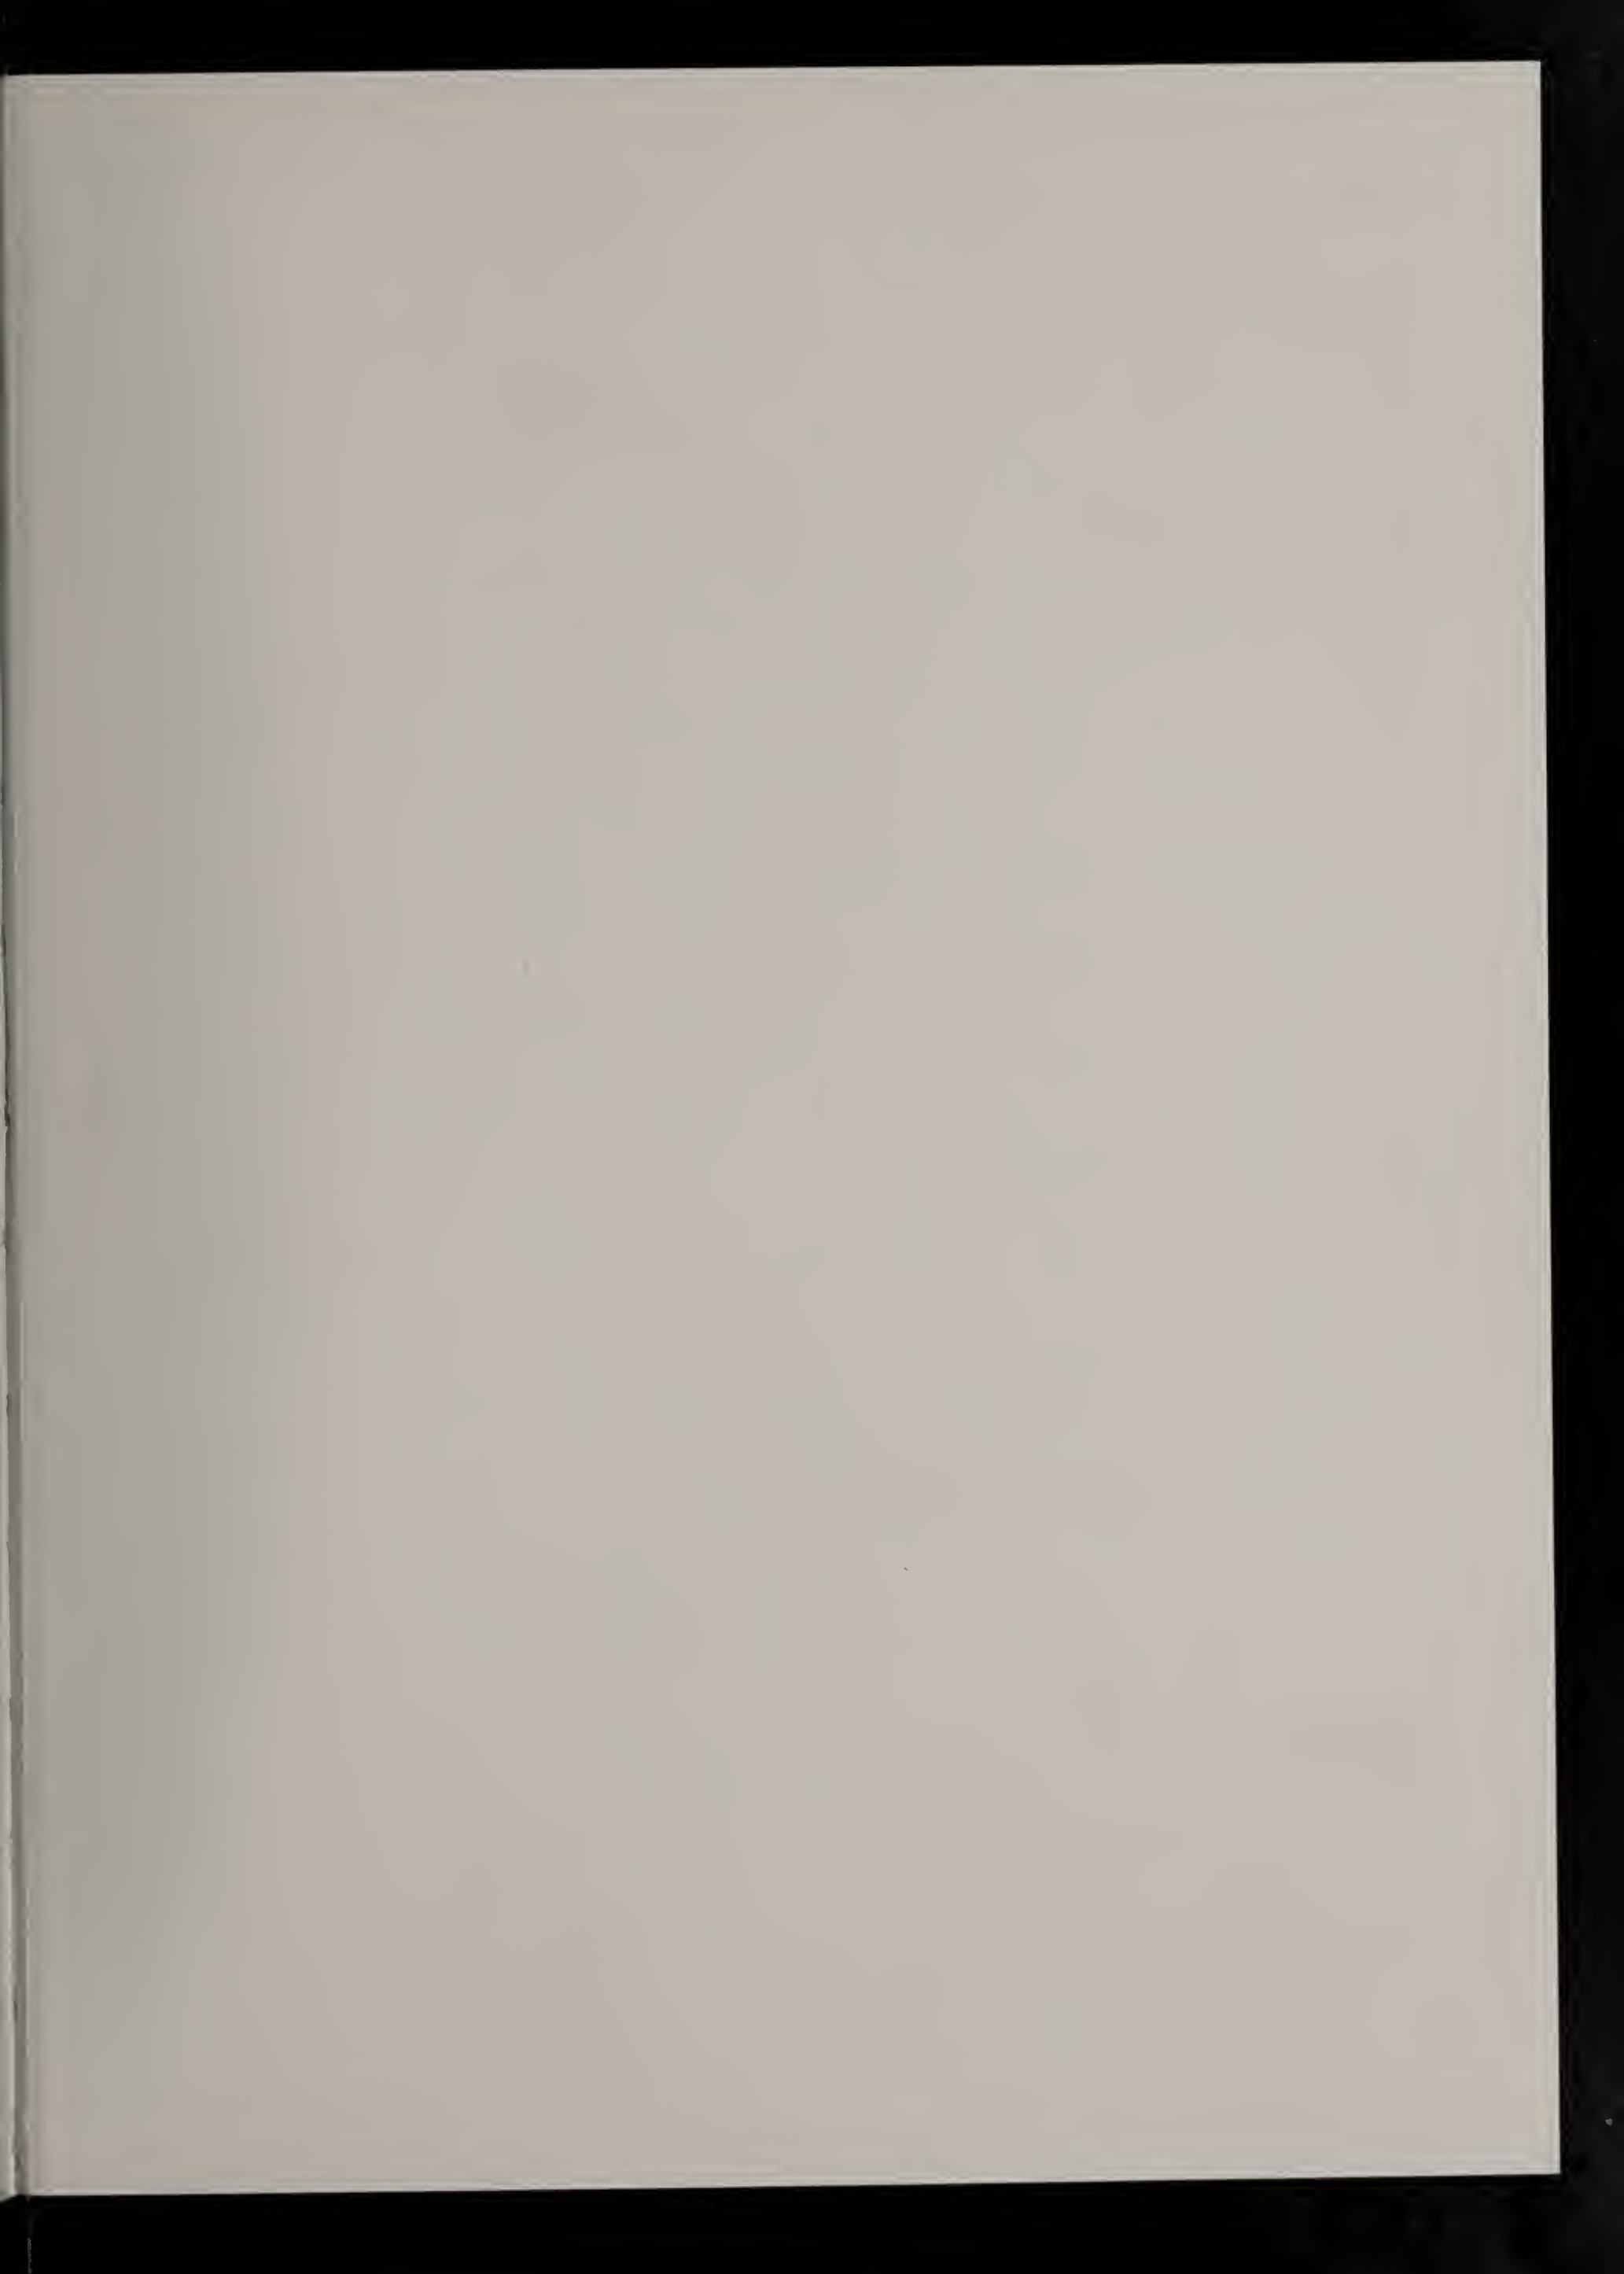

Allan Sullivan was a driving force in making a successful football program become a reality at Nauset. His unyielding commitment to all athletic programs has resulted in our high school being recognized as one of the very best. His giving and supportive personality continues to define who he is as a person.

Lynn Sullivan's contributions to our school community, by any measurement, were outstanding. Lynn's participation in the group, Football At Nauset (F.A.N.) contributed to its success. She could be seen at every meeting, every fundraiser or at busy concession stands doing whatever was necessary to assist the team. Her leadership as co-chair of two Project Graduation Committees cannot be overstated; neither can her exceptional work on two successful auctions. Her strong organizational skills as well as her warm smile and gentle way were simply remarkable.

We are honored and grateful as a school community for Allan and Lynn's efforts and contributions. Lynn lived her life as if everyone counted and was important. Allan carries this same spirit to the Nauset campus. The Class of 2003 is proud and honored to dedicate our yearbook to Allan and Lynn Sullivan.
